

August (Winter) 2012, 1 page

WHY WE NEED GOOD FACILITIES

The stag, resident on Rainbow Deer Farm in Gippsland, on the front cover (above) is peacefully eating some pellets. Only the day before, he had tangled himself in electric fencing wire. Ross Lawrence, fortunately, had the facilities in which to safely handle such a delicate procedure - handling a stag towards the end of the rut in full antler.

